ABWA's Online tools for collaboration and training!

Julie Sullivan will share information on the Association's private social media site, Community Connections. Community Connections is a learning and communications platform with the ability to connect members of the American Business Women's Association across the United States. This is a place to collaborate with members, find information on the Association's programs, and take courses to further members' careers.

Julie is a fifteen-year member of ABWA. In 2013 she was named a 2014 Top Ten. As a leading organization for working women, the American Business Women's Association takes recognition to a national level with the prestigious Top Ten Business Women of ABWA program applauded for her career accomplishments, community involvement, and her contribution to the American Business Women's Association. In 2015, Sullivan was elected as the 2015-2016 District V Vice President. The National Board of Directors is a volunteer board that governs the national bylaws on behalf of the members of the American Business Women's Association. The National Board of Directors also serve as trustees for the Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund (SBMEF). Now, Julie is an Ambassador for ABWA as an advocate and communicator of the Association's mission within the organization as well as in her personal and professional life. Julie currently serves as the Eastern Michigan Council's Chair for 2023-2024, 2023 - 2024 District V Vice President Luncheon Quad Chair, and the Treasurer for Suburban Connection.
